No grain compensation was sanctioned since 1846 and that no reference is available as to whom such compensation was paid during the famine of 1846, as the Amot-registers, bills etc. of the 30 years preceding are not preserved in that office

W.9.12.08 The information asked is not available. The Comptroller in the letter under disposal is also of opinion that the concession cannot be extended to Annexure 3 of clause (2). Their offices are not satisfactory and even in normal years the pay that they get will not help them much.

The Comptroller says that Mangani Fees are Trust funds. I do not see why this is referred to. The extra allowance now sanctioned is I believe, not debited to the Annexe Depts. Special provision must be made that the allowances to all classes of functionaries. If this view is correct it does not matter whether Mangani Fees are [illegible] with Fees or not for no part of the allowance will be debited to Mangani Fees.

Grain compensation allce is payable only to whole-time Govt Servants. Officers of the first class mentioned by the Compltr. are, with a few exceptions paid by Govt & are therefore eligible for the Jammie allowance. A few of these officers are paid from the funds of certain institutions but their whole time is ~~retained~~ at the disposal of Govt their case is not different from that of officers paid from the General revenues and they have also to be given this allce, the extra charge being borne by the funds from which the salaries are paid.

The second class of servants mentioned by the Comptr, to whom apparently the memorials belong are not entitled as stated by that office to the allce in question. Those men are engaged only for rendering specific services or are employés of institutions which receive only a fixed grant in aid from Govt & they are obviously not entitled to the grain compensation allce
